DEATH OF MES. MERCER,-The many friends of Rev. I. M. Mercer learn with deep sorrow of the death of his wife, Mrs. Fauny Mercer, which occurred this morn ing at their home in Greenville, South Carolins. During the four years that he was pastor of the First Baptlet church of tals city, she, by her noble qualities of mind and heart, her lovely christian character, and her tender solicitude for these around her, endeared herself to all. She has passed the portals of the glory land. The sympathy of the whole community goes cut to the hu-band, aged mother and prother in their sai affiction. The funeral will be held in the Second Baptist church of Richmond on Banday morning.

CONFERENCE -The Virginia annual conferences of the M. E. Church, with which Trinity Church of this city is connected, will commence at Falls Church on Wednesday next. Weekly Remnant Day Sale Occurs Every Friday.

These sales carry out a rule made at our business commencement-not to allow the remnants which necessarily follow a week's sales to be carried into the next week. All "short engths," "odd sizes," "broken lots," "ends of lines," roiled, mussed or defaced goods of every character, are laid sside until Friday, when they are sold without reference to value. In dollars and cents we lose. We gain in commeacing each week's business with fresh, clean and presentable stocks in all departments and you get, perhaps, just she article you want for about one-half its regular price.
